

International Technology Olympics Privacy Notice

This privacy notice explains how we use your data in relation to your attendance to the International Technology Olympics at NTT DATA Foundation.

1. Who is the controller of the processing of your data?

Identity: Fundación NTT DATA Europa y Latinoamérica (“Fundación NTT DATA EMEAL” or “NTT DATA Foundation”).

Postal address: Camino Fuente de la Mora 1, 28050 Madrid, Spain.

Contact of the Data Protection Office: data.protection.office@nttdata.com

2. What personal data will be processed?

- A. The personal data We process is what you provide in the form to register the International Technology Olympics: your name and e-mail address, as well as the country from where you register.
- B. Records of communications sent to you by NTT DATA Foundation or that We receive from you in relation to the International Technology Olympics
- C. During the virtual event, additional personal data may be processed, including:
 - Audio and video data from enabling your camera and microphone.
 - Information stated during the event, such as your name, age, and country.

3. What is the purpose of the processing?

We will process your personal data for the following purposes:

- A. To reserve a place for you at the International Technology Olympics;
- B. To provide you with information about the International Technology Olympics for which you have registered, that includes event updates, and possible changes, cancellation or similar information;
- C. To provide you with information about accessibility, transportation, parking, etc. that may impact on your attendance to the International Technology Olympics;
- D. To facilitate your participation in the virtual event, including enabling your camera and microphone, and sharing your basic contact details with the jury and other participants.

4. What is the legal basis for processing your data?

The legal basis for processing for the purposes described above is Article 6 (1) a) of GDPR, i.e., consent, combined with Article 8 (1) of GDPR.

We consider that for all participants regardless of their age (between 7-16 years), the processing of their personal data is lawful only if and to the extent that consent is given or authorized by the holder of parental responsibility over the participant. By participating in the virtual event, it is understood that consent has been given and authorized by the holder of parental responsibility over the participant, without the need for an additional written signed declaration.

5. Who are the recipients of your data?

The personal data you provide may be communicated to NTT DATA group companies and related foundations, for internal administrative purposes, or for sending commercial communications, if you have consented by ticking the appropriate box. Some of the NTT

DATA group companies and related foundations are located outside the European Economic Area (EEA).

In case of transferring data to a third party located in a country outside the EEA, NTT DATA group companies will ensure that adequate measures are implemented for such transfers. Thus, for transfers from the EEA to countries not considered adequate by the European Commission, we have put in place appropriate and suitable safeguards to protect your personal data and that transfer of your personal data is in compliance with the requirements and the obligations provided by applicable data protection laws, such as standard contractual clauses adopted by the European Commission.

We also inform you that your data may be communicated to data processors (technology providers), some of which have processing and/or support centres located outside the EEA.

6. How long will we keep your data?

Personal data will be kept for as long as you do not revoke your consent, but in no event longer than 10 years from the date of publishing the videos, whichever occurs earlier. Once the revocation has been exercised, which will not be retroactive unless otherwise required by law, your data may be kept blocked for the periods of limitation established by the applicable regulations. If the revocation has been exercised, we will try to, to the extent possible, apply technical measures to delete the personal data.

Please be aware that once the personal data are posted through third parties it may be technically impossible to delete retrospectively.

7. Safety Measures

We are committed to keeping your personal data secure, taking all reasonable measures to do so. We implement all necessary organizational and technical measures in accordance with the regulations in force against any unauthorized access and modification, disclosure, loss or destruction. We demand and legally bind our service providers who may handle your personal data to do the same. In this sense, please note that YouTube does not allow you to download videos directly from their site.

8. What Are Your Rights?

You can request confirmation from NTT DATA Foundation regarding whether your personal data are being processed and, if so, you may access them. You may also request the rectification of inaccurate data or, if applicable, request their erasure where, among other reasons, the data are not necessary for the purposes for which they were collected.

In certain circumstances it is possible to request the limitation of the processing of your data, in which case we will only retain them for processing claims and/or responding to complaints.

You may revoke your consent at any time. Once the revocation has been exercised, it will not be retroactive unless otherwise required by law, and your data may be kept blocked for the prescription periods established by the applicable regulations.

You may also oppose the processing of your data, in which case we will not process your data, except for compelling legitimate reasons or for processing possible complaints.

To exercise your rights, you must contact the Data Protection Officer in writing, providing proof of your identity, at any of the following addresses:

- Postal address: Camino Fuente de la Mora 1, 28050 Madrid, Spain.
- E-mail: data.protection.office@nttdata.com

To help us process your request, please indicate "International Technology Olympics 2026" in the subject line.

Finally, you are informed of your right to lodge a complaint to the competent data protection authority in the event you become aware of or consider that certain event might constitute a breach of the applicable data protection regulations.

Effective as 1st February, 2026
